Papora
Indigenous Knowledge and Health
Su Hsin (As li-i Mali)
2019/10/9
When we are in sick in community

What will we do?
Indigenous traditional knowledge about health
The herbal medicine

Over 2500 Herbs

Dan
“Recovery by nature.”
- As Li-i Mali

車前草
Dooryard Weed

- Anti-inflammatory
- Diuretic
- Fever
- Uterine Inflammation
- Cough
Snakebite
Injuries from falls, fractures, contusions and strains
Eczema / Atopic Dermatitis
Rheumatic Disorder
Rheumatoid Arthritis

“Every community is doing something that is a choice in contemporary life.”
- Te Puia
Prevention of cataracts
Prevention of gallstones
Enhance immunity
Reduce pressure
Hepatitis

“Pick up everyone in the community.”

-MUMA
“I have a whole world in my herbal garden.”
-Kalun Kalinsin
Anti-bacteria  Enhance immunity  Anti-inflammatory

2003 - The Buster of SARS (severe acute respiratory syndrome)

“Indigenous traditional healing gives psychological, emotional and spiritual support.”

- As Li-i
SARS CASES AND DEATHS

Number of Cases per Country
1 - 4 5 - 9 10 - 13 13 - 16 17 - 63 64 - 71 72 - 251 252 - 346 347 - 1755 1756 - 5328

Number of Deaths
Canada 44 China 349 Hong Kong 299 Taiwan 37 Philippines 2 Singapore 33 United States 4 Vietnam 5

Pauline Strickland
April 3, 2012
Robinson Projection
Source: WHO [13]
Mosquito-Repellent Bag and Spray

Climate Change
Air Temperature
Dengue fever
Malaria

Traditional Knowledge and Development
Applications
Generation after generation
Intellectual Property Rights & FPIC
Papora
Thank you very much! Wi-yan!